Vol. 26 - No. 9

Rensselaer, Indiana

OCTOBER, 1962

"PRESBYTERIAN CAN'T RUN FOR POPE" — General Eisenhower addressing a crowd of more than 5,000 during the cornerstone ceremonies.

Under Tension? Relax, Attend Homecoming 1962

With our enrollment at an all time high we hope Homecoming this year will be a reflection of our enrollment. Drive over to Rensselaer and enjoy a nostalgic weekend with old friends. I'm sure it will do much to raise your spirits.

We have a very pleasant weekend planned for you. All the halls will be decorated, the numerous clubs will also participate. Many of them will erect various decorations in keeping with the Homecoming theme. The Chicago Club will host a free coffee and donut hour Saturday morning in the Rec Hall. S.A.M. will be selling balloons all day. Digamma Kappa Lambda will sponsor a "car crunch." For a very nominal fee you will be able to "bust" a car with a sledge hammer. Other campus clubs will have concession stands and a "throw a ball at the Bulldog stand". Here is a schedule of events planned for the weekend.

Saturday—Free coffee & donuts—courtesy Chicago Club in the Rec. Hall.

Registration — 9:30-12:30 at the Rec. Hall and Alumni offices.

Lunch — In the cafeteria.

Open House — before game time — this will give you a chance to visit the various halls and buildings.

Football game — 2:00 P.M. St. Joe vs. the Butler Bull Dogs.

Alumni-Senior Cocktail Party — after the ball game in the Fieldhouse. At this party the various awards will be presented in a short (20 minutes) formal program, featuring the President of St. Joseph's, the Coaches, the Senior Class officers and the Alumni Board. The high point of the program will be the presentation of the Rudy Volz Memorial Trophy to the most valuable player of the Homecoming game.

Dinner — 6:30-7:30 will be catered to the seniors and alumni in the Rec Hall by Nussbaums of Remington. Nussbaum was the caterer of the recent Eisenhower-Halleck day at St. Joe.

Dance—9:00 P.M. till 1:00

A.M. The dance will be held in the Fieldhouse with tables, chairs, and beverage available in the Rec. Hall. A walkway will connect the two buildings.

Sunday — Brunch — 9:00 A.M.-11:00 A.M. in the college cafeteria.

Mass — for the alumni at 11:00 A.M. in the College Chapel.

This year will be the last year any type cocktail party or dance will be held in the Fieldhouse or Rec. Hall. Be there so you can say — "Remember Homecoming 1962, the last time we danced in the Fieldhouse". The end of an era.

City Responds 79.7% To Jubilee Drive

Saint Joseph's Diamond Jubilee development program has received the participation of 79.7 percent of the people contacted thus far during the Rensselaer area phase of the campaign, according to Richard Flynn, chairman of the headquarters committee.

Flynn told a meeting of division chairmen of the campaign committee last night that up to this point, $43,003 has been pledged by residents of the local area.

"If we receive the same participation and cooperation throughout the remainder of the drive, it cannot help but be a success in both the tangible and intangible areas," Flynn said.

Flynn said that just bringing the needs of Saint Joseph's to the public eye and making people aware of the needs of colleges in general will be one of the most gratifying results of the program in addition, of course, to the financial results.

Flynn also expressed his thanks and that of the college to the campaign workers and the people contacted for "the wonderful support and cooperation they have given the diamond jubilee program thus far."

Ike Lays Cornerstone Becomes Fellow During Visit to "His" Campus

Former President Dwight Eisenhower etched the date Sept. 13, 1962 into the memories of thousands of people by his appearance on the Saint Joseph's campus for the laying of the cornerstone at the new Halleck Center and for a huge Republican rally later in the same day. During ceremonies at the new student center General Eisenhower became a fellow of the College as

Bell Plot Exposed

The Valparaiso University victory bell, long a thorn in the sides of Puma sports fans, spent Monday and Tuesday of this week on the Puma campus, thanks to the intrepid spirit of seven sophomores.

The seven, Dominic Buttitta, Terry Lafin, Jack Lambke, Mike McMahon, John McClaughin, Bob Soltysiak and Jim Thompson journeyed to Valpo at 2 a.m. Monday morning and carried out a plot engineered by classmate Chuck Donnelly.

It took the group two hours to unbolt the 750 pound bell from its eight foot high mounting place. Then, unable to move it by any other means, they threw it to the ground, lifted it into an automobile and hauled it back to St. Joe.

The whole operation was undetected until Monday morning when irate Valpo-ites found their cast-bronze pride and joy missing.

A large group of upperclassmen patrolled the campus Monday night to stop any possible attempt to retake the bell. One carload of Valpo students was apprehended, given hamburgers in the rec hall and sent packing — without the bell.

Tuesday the bell was on display in the rec hall. That evening it was used for a pep rally, then transported via truck back to Valpo. (Picture, page 4).

did his wife, Mamie. The former president arrived on campus at noon, rested in the Bishop's quarters in Xavier hall until 3:00 p.m. when he left for a speech to school children at the courthouse square in downtown Rensselaer. He returned to the campus and laid the cornerstone for the new building at 4:30, then attended the political rally in the evening and stayed overnight before travelling to Kankakee.

Very Rev. Raphael H. Gross, C.P.P.S., president of the College made an impromptu "gift" of the College to General Eisenhower after recalling the General's remarks while overseas recently that he would like to be president of a small college in a rural setting.

Eisenhower flashed his famous grin and replied: "I'm not so certain just where this sort of thing will lead. But I do know its useless to run for Pope on the Presbyterian ticket."

The cornerstone ceremonies were preceded by an academic procession, the playing of the national anthem by the college band, under the direction of Adam Lesinsky and remarks by Fr. Gross, Congressman Charles Halleck, Emil Labbe, Dover, N.H., president of the student council and General Eisenhower. The college glee club under the direction of Fr. Lawrence Heiman, C.P.P.S., concluded the brief event by singing the "Alma Mater."

St. Joe Upsets Valpo 13-6

Never has this reporter seen spirit as high as it was before, during and after the Valparaiso football game. Prior to the game a group of St. Joe men captured the Valpo Victory Bell and brought it back to the St. Joe Campus. Enthusiastic pep rallies were held during the week with most of the student body taking part. Then Saturday night the moment of truth came, St. Joe's Pumas outplayed and outfought favored Valparaiso 13-6.

The team showed a tremendous, determined spirit to win. Letterman end Dave O'Conner scored both Puma touchdowns on 15 and 8 yard passes from quarterback Dennis Houlihan. Dick Hagye kicked the extra point after the first touchdown. Sparked on by Metz, Zera, Lennon, Betz, the St. Joe eleven played an exceptional brand of football. This coupled with the fine spirit of the whole student body warmed the heart of this 'ol alum'. Not only is St. Joe growing physically but it seems the spirit and pride in the school is growing faster than anything else at St. Joseph. Be sure and make it for Homecoming and enjoy a sample of St. Joe spirit.

"ONE MORE MR. PRESIDENT" — The photographers' plea brings a smile to the face of General Eisenhower as he spread mortar atop the cornerstone for the new million dollar Halleck Center.

WHO SAYS ST. JOE ISN'T CO-ED? These two may be a little young for college right, but just wait a few years and Patty Byerwalter and Beth Conley, both 3 years old, might follow in their fathers' footsteps to the campus they visited during the Alumni Board meeting.

The August meeting of the Saint Joseph's College Alumni Board of Directors was opened by the president Mr. Joe McGrath, who led the group in prayer.

Mr. McGrath began a discussion on Homecoming. He stated that this meeting would primarily concern Homecoming and it was his wish that we endeavor to get as many alumni as possible to attend this year. He stressed two important facets of Homecoming.

(1) Send out letters and follow up letters well in advance of Homecoming.

(2) Make Homecoming a day to remember with better planning and organization.

Mr. Bob Conley made the suggestion that we appoint all committees for Homecoming during the present meeting.

Mr. Jack McCann stressed Joe McGrath's recommendation that more planning go into Homecoming. Mr. McCann stressed three points he and the rest of the Board considered most important.

(1) Better planning.

(2) Better organization of the different presentations after the game.

(3) All Students should be allowed and encouraged to take part in the Homecoming festivities.

Mr. Jim Stang suggested that during the cocktail reception party, immediately following the game,

YOUR MOVE, FATHER! Marita McGrath, 8 and Fr. Edwin Kaiser engaged in a serious game of checkers while Marita's father, Joe, handled the chairman's duties at the Alumni Board meeting.

the alumni and the seniors should mix together more. The senior class President should introduce the new Alumni President, officers and board members to the seniors and then introduce his own class officers. At that time the new President would present the different awards including the most valuable player award, and then welcome the seniors into the alumni association. Mr. Stang also suggested that the general alumni, the alumni board and the seniors wear name tags denoting their hometown, which would make it easier for the board members to meet the seniors and alumni from their area.

Mr. Joe Moore and Mr. Byerwalter were appointed to the committee to choose the most valuable player. It was suggested by the board that letters be sent to alumni who have played football for St. Joe and invite them to be a part of the most valuable player committee.

Mr. Jack McCann was appointed liason man between the college and the alumni for homecoming. He will represent the alumni along with the alumni secretary for the Homecoming festivities. Mr. Bob Conley and Mr. Jack McCann were appointed to the Hall Decoration Committee.

By unanimous vote it was decided to call the Most Valuable Player Trophy the Rudy Volz Memorial Alumni Trophy.

The Alumni Secretary was instructed at this time to write to all the alumni chapter Presidents about organizing bus trips or car caravans to Homecoming. Mr. McGrath suggested that the Football program for Homecoming feature a picture of the Alumni President and his board.

Mr. Byerwalter and the board suggested that a section of the stands be reserved for the Alumni, so that those who arrive late would find a place reserved for them.

The board was unanimous and felt quite strongly that existing traditions be kept, but thought more traditions were needed; and secondly the board feels that all students be allowed and encouraged to stay on the campus for

Bookstore Will Feature St. Joe Items by Mail

Fr. Edward Roof, manager of the College bookstore reports that a color postcard showing St. Joe items such as clothing (like that worn by Beth Conley in the photo above) jewelry, glassware and religious items is being prepared and will be sent to the Alumni before Christmas.

Fifty articles, each numbered, will be shown on the post card and can be ordered direct from the bookstore simply by returning the postcard.

Fr. Roof said the same idea is being used by other colleges and he is inaugurating it at St. Joe because of the numerous requests he has had from Alumni and other friends of St. Joe who drop in at the bookstore during visits to the campus. He said he has made an effort to obtain a gift line which would be of particular interest to the Alumni.

The postcard will be approximately 5x7 in size with all items numbered. The reverse side of the card will show a list of the numbers and the orderer can merely check off the number of the item he wants and drop the card in a mail box.

WELCOME FROSH! Six of the 457 freshmen enrolled this year — the biggest freshman class in St. Joe history — being welcomed to the campus by student council president Emil Labbe are, (l. to r.) Marty Cusick, Cresskill, N. J., Michael Lebrato, Fort Wayne, John McEvilly, Jr., Cincinnati, O., Mike Kelly, Terre Haute, Pete Stuckman, Mamaronek, N. Y. and Fred Meyer, Lorain, O.

M.V.P. Award Carries Rudy Volz Name

The late Rudy Volz, 1953 graduate of Saint Joseph's College and former Alumni Director for Saint Joseph's from 1959 to 1961, will have his name perpetuated this Homecoming with the presentation of the first Rudy Volz Memorial Alumni Trophy, awarded to the most valuable player of the Homecoming game.

While at St. Joe, Rudy was a four year member of the Monogram Club and an enthusiastic booster of all athletics on the campus. During his tenure as Alumni Director, his spirit, interest and enthusiasm in Athletics was very evident and he worked continuously to further the horizon of a growing St. Joseph's.

Rudy's work with the Alumni in various phases of recruitment and his unselfish interest in the betterment of St. Joseph's College prompted the Alumni Board of Directors, at their summer meeting to unanimously name the coveted Most Valuable Player Award, the Rudy Volz Memorial Alumni Trophy.

Rudy's widow, Betty, will present the first Rudy Volz Trophy at the Alumni-Senior cocktail party after the Butler football game, Homecoming Day, October 20th.

Tresco Elects Lynch Pres. and Chief Exec.

Tresco Industries Inc., a new entry in the tire retreading, automotive and allied products market has announced the election of John W. Lynch '50 as President and Chief Executive Officer, effective August 1.

Lynch, a widely known veteran of 12 years in the rubber industry began his career as a production-industrial relations trainee in the Mishawaka Plant of a major rubber company in 1950. After this he became editor, Plant Publications and then Supervisor Employer and Public Relations.

Upon gaining considerable experience in field sales, Mr. Lynch, became Manager of Field Sales and Sales Promotions for the Mishawaka Rubber Company, becoming Advertising and Sales Promotion Manager in 1956. Since then he has served as Advertising and Sales Manager for Bear Brand Hoisery Company, Chicago and in recent years has been affiliated with the U.S. Rubber Company in Corporate Sales of Consumer products, Manager of Retreading Sales and Passenger Tire Sales Manager.

After the Board of Directors meeting, Mr. Lynch announced that the Company will immediately enter the hotly competitive tread rubber market with a full line of high quality competitively priced tread rubber.

The new dynamic Chief Executive is a native of Hammond, Indiana. Lynch is a father of two sons, John William III and Michael Francis. Mrs. Lynch, the former Eleanor C. Panara, was born in New York City and attended the College of New Rochelle.

Pumas Tie Tough Central State Eleven

In their second start, the Puma eleven matched the wits of the Central State Marauders and ended the game with a 14-14 tie.

Although the Marauders far out-gained the Pumas in total yardage, 318 to 195, the Puma defense seemed always to tighten as the Marauders neared their goal.

Taking advantage of the Marauder's bad pass from center in the first quarter, the Joemen jumped to a 7-0 lead with just 4:26 gone. The score was on a 15 yard pass from quarter-back Dennis Anderson to end, Terry Isselhard.

Midway in the second quarter, the Central State eleven retaliated with a 70 yard drive but failed to convert for the extra point. St. Joe led at the half 7-6.

The Marauders threatened again in the third quarter with a long drive but were halted on the St. Joe 26.

In the fourth quarter Puma Dave Ogren recovered a fumble and after a long drive the Joemen raised the homecoming weekend and that activities be provided for the students.

The board adjourned for a Picnic lunch at 12:30 P.M. and met again at 3:30 P.M. Saturday. During the afternoon session the board discussed many facets of Alumni relations.

Mr. McGrath led off the discussion by stressing the importance he placed on job placement for the students by the alumni. "Everyone should consider this a personal responsibility," said Mr. McGrath. He also pointed out the importance of men in industry and business finding out about their companies policy concerning grants in aid to colleges. Mr. George Byerwalter very recently was instrumental in securing for Saint Joseph's a $1,000.00 grant from the Oscar Mayer Foundation. Mr. Byerwalter was able to do this because he inquired about and investigated Oscar Mayer Co.'s charitable giving and passed the information on to the proper college authorities. In line with this thought the board suggested that men in areas where alumni are concentrated should be contacted to facilitate the flow of news releases from the college to their local paper and in turn send to the college any news that they think the rest of the general alumni would be interested in.

In the next portion of the meeting, the board instructed the Alumni secretary to draw up a list of names for nomination to the Board. Among the areas mentioned for representation on the board were Gary-Hammond, Detroit, Evansville-Jasper, Fort Wayne, Louisville, Mercer County, Youngstown and Lafayette. This list would be presented during the Homecoming meeting.

The board as a body wanted to know how the college was going to bill the people who pledged during the Diamond Jubilee Campaign. They thought it very necessary that bills go out to the pledges in order to remind them of their pledge as an obligation.

Before the meeting was adjourned Mr. Ed Menkhaus, News Bureau Director, gave a report on the progress of the Rensselaer Phase of the Diamond Jubilee Fund Drive. Mr. Menkhaus was very enthusiastic about the way the drive is being accepted by the various chairmen of the drive and the people in Rensselaer, Jasper County and the surrounding area.

The meeting was adjourned and the Board members and their families enjoyed a cookout at the Scharf House.

their lead to 14 to 6. The remainder of the quarter was a see-saw battle until the Marauders scored with less than four minutes remaining. The on-the-ground extra point tied the game. And for the last couple minutes St. Joe controlled the ball but was unable to capitalize on the situation.

St. Joseph's gained 180 yards rushing, 15 passing for a 195 yard total while Central State gained 202 rushing and 146 passing for a 318 yard total. Puma quarter back Dennis Anderson completed two of seven passes for 15 yards, one touchdown and a .286 percentage. Central State completed six of 16 for 146 yards and a .375 average.

Cindy doesn't let a day go by without making a comment about the "nice man at Daddy's school that carried her and let her dolly stay in his office". Friend, if you make a hit with all the girls like you did with Cindy your bachelor days are numbered.

Jerry, whenever you are in our part of Indiana be sure to look us up. And as I said before if I can be of any help in helping you or the College be sure to call on me.

Thanks again!
